Welcome! Learn English – Love London!

Welcome to International House London, a modern language school in the heart of one of the world’s greatest cities.

Here at IH London, we have been helping people learn English for over 60 years. And today, we are using the latest teaching methods and technology to inspire a new generation of students from all over the world.

Located in central London’s Covent Garden, our modern and well-equipped school is close to some of the capital’s most famous landmarks, in an area known for its shops, bustling market and street performers.

There’s no better place to learn English: London boasts hundreds of museums, art galleries and vibrant districts for you to explore when not in lessons, so you won’t have to go too far to practise your new language skills.

With courses ranging from General English – designed to develop all aspects of English language skills – to IELTS and Cambridge exam courses to help you progress in your education or career, you can guarantee that we have the right course, in the right place, for you.

General English

Why this course?
> An IH London General English course is designed for real life. General English will develop your English language skills using speaking, reading, writing and listening.
> It’s centred around you. The course has a student-centred approach, so you study with people at the same English level as you, with lots of individual support and encouragement.
> It’s fun! With creative and interactive lessons and experienced, highly motivated teachers, you will enjoy your time in the classroom as much as your time outside it, as you get to know London.

Special focus classes
Use these optional extra study classes to:
> Improve on particular skills, such as listening, writing, vocabulary and reading
> Expand your vocabulary
> Improve your use of grammar
> Express yourself more clearly
> Become a more independent learner
> We offer fast track Cambridge Preparation courses in the summer.

IELTS Preparation

Why this course?
> An IH London IELTS Preparation course will help you towards a qualification recognised throughout the world. Britain, Australia, New Zealand and Canada all acknowledge IELTS as an accepted test of language ability for university entrance. It is recognised by over 9,000 organisations worldwide, including employers, professional bodies, immigration authorities and other government agencies.
> It’s created to your individual needs. Tell us the score you need and we will work out a study plan with you. If you are lower than mid-intermediate (B1+), you may need to start with General English before you join the preparation class.
> It’s taught by experienced, enthusiastic teachers. We offer small classes with lots of attention and support from your teacher, to build confidence and skill.
> We offer fast track Cambridge preparation courses in the summer.

Cambridge Preparation

Why this course?
> An IH London Cambridge preparation course is the perfect way to prepare for your exams. We offer preparation for Cambridge English: First (FCE), Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) and Cambridge English: Proficiency (CPE). Our courses offer a clear focus on the language and skills you need to pass these exams, which are respected and recognised around the world by universities, employers and national education authorities.
> It’s taught by experienced, enthusiastic teachers. We offer small classes with lots of attention and support from your teacher, to build confidence and skill.

A General English course at IH London focuses on the English you need to communicate well in real life situations, whether for work, study, travel or simply talking to friends. We have three General English courses named after the number of lessons a week: 15, 20 and 25. Just pick the one that best suits your needs.

Course objectives
Our core General English programme will build your confidence and communication skills in the areas of speaking, listening, pronunciation, vocabulary, reading, writing and grammar. By the end of the course you will have learned ‘real’ English, using the latest course books and materials such as DVDs, newspapers and the internet, and developed learning strategies for the future if you want to continue your studies.

Course content
During the course you will:
- Work with other students to develop your communication skills by engaging in activities such as role-plays and class discussions
- Discover how to become a more effective learner
- Receive regular homework to help you review and check your understanding of what you have learned in class
- Attend regular One-to-One feedback sessions with your teacher to discuss your progress and set learning targets specific to your needs

Who is the course for?

This two-week course is ideal if you have a limited amount of time, want to re-activate your spoken English and discover the real London. It will appeal to people with an active interest in the arts, culture and society. You will be well-travelled - and have a thirst for new experiences.

Course objectives

To help you improve your English language skills, while experiencing the rich culture London has to offer.

To widen your vocabulary, develop better listening skills, improve pronunciation and acquire learning strategies for the future.

Course content:

As well as class-based One-to-One or group lessons improving vocabulary and general English language skills, we offer:

- Trainer-led visits two afternoons a week to places of special interest in London. These match the topics studied in class and may include the Houses of Parliament, a school, gallery, brewery or police station. There are plenty of opportunities to practise your English skills.
- Depending on the start date of your course, you can also visit The Chelsea Flower Show, tennis at Wimbledon, or the Proms Music Festival. We are happy to organise other activities that interest you - just let us know!

Prepare for your IELTS test

IH London is now one of the largest national providers of IELTS testing, and we have also expanded our range of IELTS preparation courses. All of our courses are taught by experienced, motivated trainers with specific knowledge of IELTS.

Course objectives

IELTS has two versions – Academic and General Training.

Choose the Academic test if you want to join a professional organisation, train, or study at an English-speaking university at undergraduate or postgraduate level.

The General Training test is the option to choose if you want to spend time living or working in an English-speaking country, or if you plan to train or study at below degree level there.

All IH London IELTS Preparation courses will give you the skills and knowledge to pass the IELTS exam. Choose from the programmes below to choose the option that best suits your needs.

Tailor-made programmes for groups and individuals

Special group services
We offer a range of special services for organisations such as:

- Schools
- Government organisations
- Agencies
- Companies

Closed group options
We can build a range of different ‘closed group’ programmes to meet the needs of your school or organisation. Your group studies together, and has a dedicated course or package designed especially for them.

Popular closed group options can include:

- Closed group English programmes
- Programmes for English teachers which combine English skills with teaching methodology
- Focus on a specialist subjects, such as business English, exam preparation
- Programmes which combine English with London sightseeing
- Super-intensive programmes of six lessons per day (or more)

Open group options are also available. In these, you study with an international mix of students from different language backgrounds. Contact us to find out more.

Combine your programme in London with another IH school
We can make arrangements for you to visit another IH school in the UK or Ireland before or after your stay in London, including help with transfers and accommodation.

UK sightseeing trips
We can also combine a stay in London with a tour of the UK’s most popular tourist locations, including delivering you to your departure airport. Places to visit may include the Roman city of Bath, the gleaming spires and ancient university buildings of Oxford and the Scottish capital, Edinburgh, with its historic Royal Mile and majestic castle.

One-to-One individual training
We also offer individual One-to-One courses, where you work with your own teacher on the areas which need special attention or specialist knowledge. You can combine a morning General English programme with afternoon One-to-One lessons.

Popular One-to-One options include:

- Specialist teaching, including accent training
- Developing skills for job interviews
- Intensive personal exam preparation
- Confidence building and pronunciation work
- Presentation skills master class

Homestay
This is a great option if you want to experience the comforts of home while staying in London. It will give you the chance to practise English at home and discover more about life in the big city by spending time with people who live here – discovering all about their lives and the culture around you. You will get the chance to see a different side of London, discover its hidden secrets and maybe even make friends for life!

All our Homestay hosts are carefully selected and trusted, and the accommodation is of an extremely high standard. They will give you space and independence so you can study and enjoy yourself, but will be there to help you if you need them.

Most accommodation is 40–50 minutes away from the school using London’s frequent underground and bus routes. Breakfast is included and evening meals can be provided on request.

Studio apartments
Prodigy living King’s Cross is close to some of the city’s top new restaurants and exciting public spaces, such as Granary Square, with its 1,000 dancing fountains! Paris and continental Europe are a train ride away via the Eurostar terminal at St. Pancras.

All studios are en suite, with their own kitchenette. There is free Wi-Fi throughout the building, a fitness centre, café and a large screening room which residents are free to use any time. There is also a games space equipped with pool tables, a jukebox and football tables.

Halls of residence
Liberty House consists of two residences in central London, one in the trendy district of Clerkenwell and the other near the cosmopolitan area of Angel, Islington. Both are a short Tube ride from the school.

They offer a choice of accommodation:
» Studios – self-contained with a fully-fitted kitchen and spacious living/study area
» Single rooms – these have a shared kitchen and spacious living area. All rooms have en suite bathrooms and are furnished with a single bed, desk, chair and wardrobe. Telephone and data points are provided for high-speed internet access.

Boutique-style guest house
London Lodge is a beautiful guest house situated in Kilburn, north west London. It offers a top quality ‘home from home’ service if you like to live with others but still have your own space. Breakfast is included and dinner can be provided each day. Most rooms are en suite and all feature double beds and desks. Internet is available on request.

The guest house has a stunning garden – a great space to relax in with the other students living in the house. It is within easy walking distance of excellent transport links to the school.

House or flat share
This a very sociable way to live and gives you the chance to get to know people from different countries and cultures. You share communal areas, and there are different sleeping options:
» Single room
» Twin rooms (for friends sharing)
» Dormitory rooms (for 3-5 students sharing)

All rooms have desks for study, and communal areas have a TV.

This option is self-catered and there is no host living on site. It’s perfect for fun, independent people who enjoy living with others.

Bedding is provided and there are free laundry facilities on site.

Our house and flat shares are all within walking distance of stations in safe, residential areas with excellent transport links to the school.

Learn English... make friends!

Our popular Social Programme offers the opportunity to experience London and make friends with fellow students from all over the world. We also organise group trips to explore the rest of the UK and beyond, with visits to popular attractions including the ancient monument at Stonehenge or Shakespeare’s birthplace at Stratford-Upon-Avon. You can even jump on the Eurostar for lunch in Paris.

As soon as you arrive at the school, you can choose from a range of free and paid-for daily activities. Meet The Queen and 007 James Bond at Madame Tussauds waxworks, visit the world famous Wembley Stadium, or experience top West End Shows, such as The Lion King.

As well as being a great way to meet people, all activities are designed to help you practise your English - as well as have fun. They will improve your understanding of the language, speed up your progress and improve your confidence.
