Language training for career success
The best thing about the course was the flexibility of the curriculum. It was based on our needs to learn the nuances of British English and delivered the goal.

Zafer, Lucozade & Ribena Suntory

We offer executive language training courses for busy professionals, who want to learn or improve their English in specific areas, to enhance their careers.

Our executive courses are run exclusively for professionals, aged 21 and above, and take place in The Executive Centre, complete with a private social lounge and panoramic views across the London skyline.

All courses are bespoke and created by our trainers to help you achieve your goals. Choose to learn what is important to you, in the time that you have available, and achieve results that shine long after the course ends.
In a small class there is the opportunity to speak a lot. The teacher did a very good job teaching with a role play approach, so we can manage practical situations in real life.

HOW WILL I BENEFIT?

No.1 language school in Central London*, with courses built entirely to focus on your goals.

IH London has been teaching for over 65 years and is part of the global brand International House World, which now has 160 top schools in 52 countries.

LANGUAGE TO MAKE YOU SHINE

You already have the business experience, but communicating with people in English can bring challenges: choosing the right way to say something matters for the clarity of the message, how it is received, and what people think about you.

AVOID LANGUAGE PITFALLS

The nuances of the English language are vast. There are many different ways to say the same thing, and people with English as a native language attribute meaning to each one – that meaning is not always obvious to non-native English speakers. You can be misunderstood, even if a dictionary says otherwise. We are here to help.

GAIN SKILLS AND CONFIDENCE WHERE YOU NEED A BOOST

Our professional language trainers can be your guide to gaining confidence in the language skills that matter most to you: presentations, written materials, or simply to improve your small talk and networking skills in English. Wherever you work, or want to work, it’s about people and connecting with them – confidently.

SHORT COURSES TO ADVANCE QUICKLY

We understand our professional clients are busy and want to get the maximum benefit out of a short time with us. We work to your goals to ensure you excel in the language skills you want to focus on. We will help you get to the next step of your career.

PERFECT ENVIRONMENT TO FOCUS ON YOUR GOALS

You will have your own space, with calm and relaxing break-out areas, with quiet spaces for you to take calls and answer work emails (if necessary). Tea, coffee and refreshments are provided, as well as a range of newspapers, all complimentary. Free wi-fi throughout, of course.

EXPAND YOUR INTERNATIONAL NETWORK

We offer a range of guest talks and social events for you to meet other international business professionals. The world is more connected than ever and who you meet on a course at IH London could open doors for you.

Very useful lessons with really nice and skilled teachers. The environment of the school is warm and cosy. A really good experience.

Giovanni Rella
In short, it’s all about you. Everything is personalised to your goals, your needs, your learning style and to make the most of the time you have available.

Before you start your course, we conduct a needs analysis, so we can design a course to suit you and what you want to achieve by the end of the course.

For example:

“I want to focus on creating and delivering great presentations in English.”

“I work in marketing and want to focus on creating engaging marketing materials in English.”

“I am a Director and I want to focus on effective meetings in English.”

“I am confident in my work but I need to create better working relationships with my clients and colleagues in English.”

The courses are practical with real-life work simulations and workshops to learn and practise the skills you want to focus on. This is the best way for our professional clients to learn, in a short space of time, and builds other skills such as creative thinking, critical thinking, teamwork, and confidence. You will learn exclusively with other professionals.

Everyone on an executive course is invited to our guest speaker talks and social events designed especially for our professional clients. This is a great way to boost your confidence using your English skills and grow your international network.

After your course, you will have three months free access to our online platform for professionals, with online lessons and resources, to continue your learning.
Lara looks after all our professional clients and manages the academic team for the Executive Centre. Lara has been with IH London since 1992 and has been an academic manager since 1993. She has extensive teaching and training experience both in the UK and abroad.

Our teachers are passionate about the work they do and want to help you achieve your goals. The course is relevant to you and focused on your needs.

What I love most about my role is matching trainers to clients. The client’s goals come first and then they are matched to a trainer with the skills and experience to fulfil those goals. It’s this firm focus on your personal goals that make these courses special.
The Executive Centre, with panoramic views across the London skyline, is reserved exclusively for our professional clients. You will also have access to all the other facilities and resources at the school.

International House London is an amazing place to learn real English, as well as to build relationships.

Silvio Jablonski
We are based in the beautiful Covent Garden in central London, famous for its shops, cafés, restaurants and West End theatres. We are also close to the legal, financial and commercial centres of the capital.

OUR CENTRAL LONDON LOCATION

We have a full social programme for our professional clients, that allows you to network, have fun and practise your English.

Many social activities are included with your executive course, including walking tours and guest speaker talks. For other activities, you only pay the attraction’s entry fee and for your own food and drinks at dinners. Many museums and art galleries in the UK are free to visit.

SAMPLE ACTIVITIES:

- Theatre trips to famous shows such as Mamma Mia, Mousetrap and Phantom of the Opera
- Cheese and wine evenings at Gordon’s Wine Bar
- Dinner with other professionals and a trainer at London’s many fantastic restaurants
- River boat trips along the Thames
- Afternoon Tea
- Museum visits, including special late night openings
- Art gallery visits, including special late night openings
- Quiz evenings
- Guest speaker talks

We also run tours to destinations such as the Tate Modern, St Paul’s Cathedral, Leicester Square, Chinatown, and the British Museum. Your guides will point out other places of interest along the way.

There are several tube stations within a 5-minute walk of the Executive Centre and we are only two tube stops away from King’s Cross.
EXECUTIVE GROUP

Small group course with other professionals tailored to your goals.

KEY DETAILS

Language level: A2 and above (A2 is elementary level). You will be placed in a group with people of a similar language level.

Course length: Choose from 1 week or more

Course days: Monday – Friday

Class size: 6 maximum

Lessons per week: Choose from 15 or 30 (each lesson is 55 mins)

Lesson times:
- 15 lessons: 09:00 - 12:00 or 13:15 - 16:15
- 30 lessons: 09:00 - 12:00 and 13:15 - 16:15

Start dates: Every Monday (except UK public holidays)

WHO IS THIS COURSE FOR?

This course is suitable for professionals who would like an intensive small group course to improve their English communication skills.

The direction of the course will be determined as a group with your trainer and adapted as needed as the course progresses, to ensure all goals are met. Topic examples include: language skills for effective presentations, negotiations or meetings, and language for marketing, sales, HR, management, leadership, and medical. You can choose any topic relevant to you with your trainer and group.

OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, you will:
- Communicate more effectively in a professional environment
- Feel more confident in the chosen areas focussed on during the course
- Have increased vocabulary in topics related to your professional working life

COURSE CONTENT

The executive group courses are kept small, a maximum of 6 participants, so the trainer can focus on everyone’s goals.

You will be placed in a group with people of a similar language level (we will send you a language test to complete ahead of the course) and everyone in the group will be a professional, so you can share your experiences and learn from each other too.

On the first day, participants will discuss their needs together with the trainer who will build a course programme which focuses on the needs of the group. There will be skills others would like to focus on that would benefit you too and you can increase your knowledge of how other companies and sectors approach tasks relevant to you.

Although topics will be related to professional life, general grammar and everyday life topics will be integrated into the course to help you communicate with people in a working and non-working environment. This will be useful for building rapport with your colleagues and customers.

Throughout the course, individuals will also improve effectiveness skills such as confidence, critical thinking, emotional intelligence, resilience, creative thinking and innovation.

COURSE BENEFITS

- Guest speaker talks
- Networking lunch every week
- This course includes all Executive Centre benefits (see pages 12-15).

PROGRESS TO

- Achieving your next career step or project
- Online lessons with a tutor after your course
- Free three month access to our online learning platform for professionals

I appreciated the cultural diversity and the richness of the educational and linguistic offer. The courses were well planned in order to achieve the objectives expressed by the customers within registration. As a Moroccan MP working in the field of policy, I think mastering many languages, especially English, is a very useful tool for foreign policy and multilateral relationships. All members of parliament need to use English in the area of bilateral meetings all over the world.

I recommend IH London for many reasons: the first, for its history in teaching languages; the second, for the accumulation of experience of managing different nationalities, profiles, specific needs and socioeconomic categories of customers; and lastly for its know-how.

ONLINE TRAINING FOR PROFESSIONALS

If you prefer learning online, or want to continue your learning after your course in London, we have online training options designed for professionals.

ONE-TO-ONE LIVE ONLINE LESSONS

Book online one-to-one sessions with a professional language trainer for help with specific goals when you need it the most. Prepare for a job interview or a big presentation, without even leaving your desk.

› 6 hour lesson packages, which can be divided into time slots to suit you
› A session can last 30 minutes to an hour – you choose
› Available from 7am to 10pm UK time, 7 days per week
› You will get a dedicated trainer, that is matched to your needs, and it will be the same trainer you see each time. (If for any reason you’d like to change your online tutor, that’s absolutely fine too).

Once you are signed up, we will send you a link to your video session page and agree a time with your tutor that suits you for your video lessons.

It’s that simple.

EXECUTIVE ONLINE RESOURCE CENTRE

All our executive courses give you free access to this resource for three months after your course. You can choose to pay for longer access and it’s available to book as a standalone option.

You can pause any of the lessons whenever you need to and simply start again where you left off. Available on iOS and Android mobile devices.

Your trainer can recommend specific courses that would benefit you. Courses on the platform include:

BUSINESS SPEAKING

Business Speaking is designed for intermediate and upper-intermediate learners. The course offers focused, effective practice of English skills in over 30 common business settings.

Subject areas include: meetings and discussions; negotiations and sales; presentations and questions and answer sessions; problems and complaints; projects and plans; small talk and networking; telephoning and conference calls.

You will be exposed to over 600 key business expressions in natural contexts that feature speakers from six different countries including the USA, UK, Canada, Australia, Singapore and India.

This course has 30 lessons (60 hours of content).

PRACTICAL ENGLISH

Practical English is a general English course for elementary to advanced level learners that helps improve your core English skills.

The course offers a highly personalised learning formula to identify weak areas, and to continually provide study material that address individual needs, as you work through the course.

At the start of the course, you will complete a diagnostic test to assess your abilities in listening, reading and grammar. The results are then used to suggest the most suitable lessons to maximise learning.

Content areas include: business; everyday life; leisure and entertainment; people and relationships; nature and the environment; society; travel and transportation.

This course has 194 lessons (350 hours of content).

WORDMINE

Wordmine is designed for learners of all levels. The series is comprised of general vocabulary and 22 specialised subject areas that will help you master hundreds of new words in context.

You can personalise your own learning within the course.

Subject areas include: general English; medical; legal; accounting; general business (3 levels); meetings; negotiations; presenting; telephoning; management; retail; hospitality; financial; engineering; insurance; and pharmaceutical.

This course has 330 hours of content and 6,500 words to learn. You can increase your vocabulary in just 15 minutes a day.

BESPOKE TRAINING COURSES FOR COMPANY GROUPS

Colleagues can learn together and boost the whole company.

We can deliver training around your business schedule, including daytime, evening or weekend training.

If you’d like your team to step away from the office, you are very welcome at The Executive Centre, or we can deliver in-company training at your location anywhere in the world.

We can create bespoke programmes for all levels and industries, to focus on the areas where you need it most. Example programmes include cross-cultural communication skills, business language for managers and language training for the fashion industry.

We start with a conversation. We listen to what you would like to achieve, what your current capabilities are and discuss the most practical, cost-effective way of working with you. We’ll create a proposal which details course objectives, training design, delivery, course reporting, feedback, review and assessment processes and full costs.

We make a difference to each individual, bring teams together and demonstrate results to the company.

We are also able to offer company training in other modern languages, in addition to English, including: Arabic (modern standard; some regional dialects available upon request), Brazilian Portuguese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin, Portuguese, Russian and Spanish. We can offer training in even more languages. Contact us with your requirements and we’ll put together a course for you.

We have worked with top clients, including Abercrombie & Fitch, Bank of London & the Middle East, Café Rouge, Corinthia Hotel, Expedia, The Fairtrade Foundation, Fedex, The Foreign & Commonwealth Office, The Guardian, Gucci, Harrods, Sainsbury’s, Speak the Speech, Stella McCartney, Sony Music, Swarovski, Transport for London and Travelzoo (Europe) Ltd.
A LANGUAGE TRAINING CASE STUDY: ABERCROMBIE & FITCH

Abercrombie & Fitch Co., through its subsidiaries, operates as a specialty retailer of casual apparel for men, women and children. It operates through three segments: U.S. Stores, International Stores and Direct-to-Consumer. The company was founded in 1892 and runs thousands of stores worldwide.

THE CHALLENGE

Store managers who had English as their mother tongue were being assigned overseas to open retail stores in high profile shopping areas worldwide, including most of Europe, Japan, South Korea and China.

They were tasked with recruiting an entire team of local managers and store staff in a very short time. Most managers were complete beginners in the target language and had little to no experience of the culture of the country they were being assigned to.

OUR SOLUTION

We designed bespoke intensive language training courses with a global delivery. Courses were delivered pre-departure or on-arrival at International House London and in International House schools worldwide where required, including Berlin, Amsterdam, Paris, Rome, New York, Beijing, Hong Kong, Tokyo and Seoul.

Syllabus and materials were company specific at all times. Courses combined general language skills and work specific language. Cultural awareness modules were integrated in the language programme throughout.

The solution included a customised online learning support platform, enabling participants to pick up lesson notes, materials and access complementary resources.

RESULTS

Managers consistently achieved an operational language level by the end of their course and were aware of the social and business culture of their destination country. They were ready to relocate and achieve their own business objectives set by the client.
WHAT DO OUR COMPANY GROUP CLIENTS SAY?

Due to the culture and language immersion systems at International House, I was able to learn a new language much faster than I had anticipated. My time at International House not only established a foundation for professional success, but also allowed for personal growth that aided in living in my new country of residence.

Chris, Abercrombie & Fitch

The course was brilliant. International House made extensive enquiries beforehand to find out exactly what we wanted so that the programme was entirely bespoke to suit our challenges. The days flew by and were led by a vastly experienced and knowledgeable facilitator.

Jonathan, Speak the Speech

We work with hundreds of people in our stores every day (customers and associates), and our 2 month intensive language training allowed us to break down any barriers our languages may have created. International House not only prepared us for daily social situations, but also went above and beyond to create specific work scenarios we would encounter on a daily basis making our transition into a foreign country that much easier.

Kelly, Abercrombie & Fitch

I enjoyed the course very much and I am very happy about the teacher – she is excellent! So much so that I have already recommended her to another colleague here at Travelzoo.

Raffaele, Travelzoo (Europe) Ltd

My course was perfect! The best thing was how much I saw myself improve.

JJair, Corinthia Hotel

OCCUPATIONAL ENGLISH TEST PREPARATION

The Occupational English Test (OET) is a test for healthcare professionals.

The OET is used in the UK, Australia, New Zealand and Singapore among others to assess the Medical English skills of a wide range of healthcare professionals, including doctors, nurses and midwives.

By taking one of our OET preparation programmes, you will learn techniques and strategies that will help you achieve the score you need.

Our courses cover:

- Real healthcare scenarios so you’ll feel more confident on test day
- Developing language skills, essential for success in your career
- Full exam practice with our face-to-face courses

Our courses are based on bespoke material, written specifically for your profession and to help you pass the OET test.

Contact sales@ihlondon.com or see our website for more details and start dates. These courses are available to book for individuals and for groups.

We were one of the first schools in London to offer face-to-face OET preparation courses for medical English and we have been awarded Premium Provider status by the OET.

We have a range of options, both at IH London and online.
MEET SOME OF OUR TRAINERS

IH London is a pioneer in language teacher training and is proud to have a highly qualified team of trainers from around the world.

In addition to being trained, qualified and experienced English teachers, our trainers have many years’ professional experience including: contacts throughout the legal, financial and commercial world, experience working with top management, gaining MBA and other business qualifications, knowledge of many world languages, experience of living in many countries and many have run their own businesses.

MELANIE BRYANT
Melanie has been teaching for 27 years. Her wide-ranging experience includes delivering specialist courses in marketing, human resources, management, finance, journalism, politics & diplomacy and English for veterinary surgeons. In her classes at IH London, she has taught international sportsmen, CEOs of large multinationals, famous actors and TV presenters, as well as highly motivated, bright young professionals on the career ladder.

DANIELLE CAPRETTI
Danielle has lived and worked in 14 countries, specialising in the field of legal English. An honors graduate of the Syracuse University School of Law, she has worked with lawyers, judges and civil servants in England, Italy, Estonia, Finland and Romania. She has also taught at universities preparing students for legal English qualifications in Germany, Croatia, Albania and Wales.

HELEN GRAY
Helen has had extensive teaching experience both in the UK and abroad. She worked for an international business school in the role of a business trainer and an academic manager before joining The Executive Centre at IH London. Elena has a BA in English Language and Literature and the Cambridge Delta. She completed an MA course in Linguistics and Business Administration. She speaks French, Russian and is studying Italian.

ALAN CARGYL
Alan was previously an Assistant Director of Studies in International House Poland. In his twenty years at The Executive Centre, Alan has been a frequent speaker at conferences and events. He holds a BA (Hons) degree and the highest qualification for English language teachers offered by language schools (the Delta, previously DTEFLA).
NICK HAMILTON

Nick has been teaching since 1983, working in Germany, Turkey, Poland, Lithuania, France, China, Russia and the UK. He has an MA from Edinburgh University and the RSA Diploma in English language teaching. He speaks at many industry conferences, specifically about Business English, and he co-wrote the book Five Minute Activities for Business English, published by Cambridge University Press.

CHARLES LOWE

Charles has been working for IH London since 1975, with breaks for teaching in Sudan, Poland, Japan, Spain, and Morocco. His professional roles include: teacher, teacher trainer, business English teacher, business English teacher trainer, school director, and lecturer at London University.

IONA MCCALL-JUDSON

Iona has a history degree, a Graduate Diploma in Law and completed the Legal Practice Course. She also worked at one of the UK’s top city law firms, Macfarlanes LLP, where she qualified as a solicitor and specialised in Commercial Real Estate. After several years as a practising solicitor, Iona went on to qualify as a teacher and was awarded her CELTA (Certificate in Teaching English To Adults) at International House London in 2018.

ANYA O’SULLIVAN

Anya has been teaching for over four years and has a Masters in Sociocultural Linguistics from Goldsmiths University. She has taught in Australia, Tokyo, Seoul and the UK.

SALLY PALETI

Sally joined The Executive Centre IH London in 2010 and teaches a diverse range of our clients in a wide range of sectors, including: HR, retail, management, management consultants, pharmaceutical, marketing, law, advertising/design, business owners – and more. She also teaches in finance, including our regular HSBC clients. Sally worked in the pharmaceutical industry for almost 20 years, in management roles and with her own marketing communications company. She is currently studying for the Graduate Diploma in Law at university part-time.

OZLEM BIRGUL YUSES

Ozlem has an MA from the University of Westminster and is studying for her PhD in Trainer Training in Intercultural Communication. She has been teaching English since 2007 and has been with The Executive Centre since 2017. She holds multiple language training certificates including TEFLL, TESOL, and CELTA. In addition to teaching, she also works for ICC-Europe’s Language Association.

"I really enjoyed the different activities organised by IH London, discovering things you may not know if you came to London only as a tourist.

Flavia Tagliacotti"

"The teachers are very well prepared. The one to one class is great because I can learn and practice any difficulties. People in IH London are very nice. Very good experience for me.

Vera Carvalho de Andrada Dodsworth"
