

COURSE RECORD AND LEARNING OUTCOMES: General English 15 hours

9am – 12: (15 lessons per week) Sample timetable based on Speakout Coursebook

Lesson outline and materials used.

Monday

Speaking

Catch up about the weekend

Vocab and grammar

review of previous week media, quantifiers

Topic

Making difficult decisions

Speaking and topic vocab

Collocations on decisions

Reading

Reading for specific information and follow up topic language work.

Speaking

discussion on text

Tuesday

Homework check

Topic

Making difficult decisions (continued)

Speaking and vocab

response to homework and personalisation

Grammar

past and mixed conditionals. Review and practice.

Pronunciation

Work on connected speech, improving fluency

Wednesday

Homework check

Topic

Extraordinary stories

Speaking and grammar

role play of decision-making situations

Functional language evaluating choices and decisions. Language Practice.

Vocab

compound adjectives. Practice and discussion.

Thursday

Homework check

Topic

Values

Speaking and vocab

collocations related to values

Listening

Listening to process meaning. Decoding a text to extract detail and improve fluency

Grammar

Review and practice of -ing form v infinitive.

Friday

Homework check

Topic

DVD. The Human Animal.

Pre- and post-discussion and Practice

Speaking:

language to give advice to visitors from another country.

Reading:

A Cross-Cultural article. Compare and contrast.

Review of the week

speaking, grammar and vocab

Homework and other information (incidental language covered / comments on students)

Monday

-

Tuesday

Speaking:

Personalisation and practice of the topic.
Feedback

Wednesday

-

Thursday

Pronunciation

connected speech and
intrusive /w/

Friday

-

Homework and other information (incidental language covered / comments on students)

Vocab

collocations to improve naturalness

Grammar

practice exercises to
improve accuracy

Writing

a summary of a decision,
justifying choices made

Grammar

practice exercises to
improve accuracy

Review in preparation for
Monday

