

What is the role of a Future leader teacher?

A Future leader teacher is responsible for delivering high quality Future leader lessons (entrepreneurship, World leaders or Young MBA) to students. A high level of professionalism and background knowledge of the subject areas is essential for this position. You will also assist Activity leaders in running activities and might be asked to take students on excursion or help registering new students on arrivals day.

What does a typical day look like?

Lesson days

Students on Future leader courses have lessons in the morning and afternoon, six days a week. Classes consist of input sessions, workshops and visits from Guest speakers. You might be asked to support Activity leaders running the late afternoon/evening activities.

Excursion days

Students have one full day and one half day excursion per week. Students on Future leader courses have their full day excursion on a different day to the other students. You might be required to go on excursion with the students and show them around the attractions (full excursion packs are provided).

Arrival/departure day

Students arrive/depart on Wednesdays. A future leader course is two weeks (after the first two weeks a second cohort will arrive). You might be asked to assist with registering new students, showing them to their rooms and giving site tours.

What skills do I need to do this job?

- CELTA or equivalent
- Passion for working with young people
- Excellent interpersonal skills and experience teaching soft skills
- Genuine interest in the subject of the Future leader course (previous work experience in the area is beneficial)
- Organisational skills and a team player

What training will I receive?

You will receive a comprehensive induction from the Future leader coordinator before the course starts. You will be sent the future leader course materials before arriving at the centre in order to be fully familiar with the content. You will also receive safeguarding training and tips on how to manage student behaviour.

What is included in the package?

- You will get free bed and full board (3 meals a day) provided at the centre.
- Opportunities to attend excursions to locations in the surrounding area and around the UK
- Professional development opportunities and sessions on campus
