Join Our Team as a Future Leaders Teacher – International House London Young Learners

Looking for an inspiring, rewarding summer role where you can guide young international students as they develop leadership, communication and real-world skills? Join IH London's Young Learners team and help shape the next generation of innovators, entrepreneurs and changemakers! Check the programmes here: Young Learners - International House London

What We're Looking For

We're looking for engaging, supportive teachers who are passionate about helping teenagers grow into confident future leaders. You should enjoy facilitating discussion, encouraging creativity, and bringing complex ideas to life in an accessible way.

To apply you must have:

- A CELTA/Trinity TESOL or equivalent (PGCEs with EAL experience also considered)
- Experience teaching young learners or EAL students
- A positive, flexible, “can-do” attitude
- Strong communication and classroom management skills
- A commitment to creating safe, inclusive, collaborative learning environments
- Experience in residential settings
- Experience teaching ESP/CLIL (desirable)

What the Job Is About

As a Future Leaders Teacher, you will guide students through dynamic, conference-style programmes such as Leadership, STEM Innovation and Entrepreneurship. You'll facilitate debates, deliver interactive workshops, support group projects, and mentor students as they build confidence in English and develop key 21st-century skills. This fully residential role includes supporting the wider student experience on campus, contributing to pastoral care, and helping during arrivals and induction. You'll join a friendly international team, receive paid induction training, and benefit from regular CPD throughout your contract.

Contract Details

- Contracts available from 2–4 weeks
- Up to 36 hours per week across six days with One full day off per week
- Free accommodation in single rooms with staff-only shared bathrooms
- Three meals a day + free tea and coffee
- Staff live on-site from two days before the course begins until the final day of contract

Why Choose Us?

International House London Young Learners has run high-quality summer schools since 2011 and was recognised in the 2024 British Council inspection with 19 out of 22 strengths in academic areas. With us, you will:

- Work in a positive, professional environment
- Join a welcoming, collaborative team with many returning staff
- Teach motivated students on unique, high-level programmes
- Develop experience in STEM, entrepreneurship, leadership or politics education
- Strengthen your CV with ESP, CLIL and project-based learning experience
- Build skills that support future roles such as senior teacher or corporate trainer

Right to Work

Applicants must have the right to work in the UK. All appointments require a DBS/Police Check and satisfactory references.
